1. Medford Food Security Task Force Hunger Free Pledge - Syrah McGivern
2. Reorganization of Subcommittees
3. “Given that creation of ad hoc reports at the behest of the School Committee can require substantial effort on the part of the office of the Superintendent and her staff; and that the School Committee often depends on these ad hoc reports to assist in deliberations; the Rules, Policy & Equity Subcommittee shall generate a new rule for the School Committee to guide how ad hoc report requests are generated.”
4. “Given that several periodic reports are required by law, regulation, past practice, and best practice, the Rules, Policy & Equity Subcommittee shall promulgate an annual schedule of such reports to provide the Superintendent, the School Committee, and the public a transparent and concise understanding of when to expect these reports.”
5. Be it resolved that the school committee hold a Committee of the Whole meeting to discuss minimum wage for all employees. Be it further resolved that the administration provide the School Committee with a list of all who do not make minimum wage and what the cost per year would be to make the change.
6. Be it resolved that the administration provide the School Committee with an updated report on Dyslexia during our 2/24 meeting and all the changes that have taken place since June to improve how we test and treat.
7. School Committee Resolution

A Resolution in Support of the Healthy Youth Act H.410:

Whereas comprehensive health education reduces sexual assault and harassment;

Whereas it is important to educate children about how to build healthy, respectful relationships;

Whereas all children deserve medically accurate education;

Whereas the diversity of human gender expression is non-binary;

Whereas it is the responsibility of our public schools to educate ALL children; and

Whereas underrepresented sexual and gender minorities are disproportionately affected by inadequate health education; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the School Committee of Medford:

supports the passage of House Bill 410, An Action Relative to Healthy Youth; urges the Massachusetts House of Representatives to bring this bill to a vote; and sends a letter of support to the Honorable Speaker Mr. DeLeo, the Honorable Mr. Donato, the Honorable Mr. Garballey, the Honorable Ms. Barber.

8. School Committee Resolution
