RE: Community Development Board Recommendation: Amend Zoning Ordinance to delete Section 94-7.5 (Vacant and Foreclosing Properties)

On September 16, 2026, the Community Development Board ("CDB") held a duly noticed public meeting to deliberate and vote on a recommendation on the proposed zoning amendment to delete Section 94-7.5 (Vacant and Foreclosing Properties). Board members present at the meeting were Chair Doug Carr, Member John Anderson, Member Sean Beagan, Member Page Buldini, Member Dina Colagerro, and Member Ari Fishman.

Understanding that the new general ordinance (Chapter 10, Article 8) regulating vacant buildings does not go into effect until August 4, 2027, the Board agreed that deletion of Section 94-7.5 should be concurrent with the effective date of Chapter 10, Article 8 so that there is no gap in regulatory power.

Board Member Sean Beagan motioned to recommend that the City Council adopt the amendment to the Zoning Ordinance (Chapter 94) to delete Section 94-7.5, to be effective concurrently with the effective date of Chapter 10, Article 8 (Vacant and Foreclosing Properties) of the Revised Ordinances. Motion seconded by Board Member Buldini. The Board voted unanimously (6-0) by roll call to approve the motion.
