AGENDA

Be it resolved, as motioned at the November 4, 2024 Regular School Committee Meeting, the following resolution was moved for further discussion to the subcommittee.

2024-40 Offered by Mayor Lungo-Koehn

Consolidation Language for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Support

Whereas the City's DEI Director and ADA Coordinator is supporting School ADA, DEI, Crisis Management, HR, and training needs by being a resource to the School Administration team.

Be it resolved that the DEI Director will continue to be a resource to the School Department including but not limited to the following in the DEI/ADA realm:

- Attendance at parent meetings during challenging transitions (e.g. Principal change overs).
- Interview panel and question design.
- Professional development days (consultation with external trainers for program design, presentation, and support and/or direct training by DEI Director/ADA Coordinator).
- Assist with professional employee discipline cases involving civil rights allegations.
- Civil Rights complaints mediation (e.g. employee to employee, parents to MPS) and consultation to the administrative team on all civil rights related matters.
- Support required training needed after successful conversations with respective collective bargaining unit presidents.
- Support HR, as needed:
 - Consultation regarding ADA/FMLA cross over;
 - Review and guidance of external correspondence when addressing hate related imaging found on school property;
 - Resource sharing (new laws, amendments to laws, case settlements from EEOC and navigational support with HR);

- Recruitment and talent acquisition;
 - Sharing of viable candidates from City side; and
 - Training support (webinars, formal sessions, etc.).
- Other related items as identified by the administrative team.
