AGENDA

1. To develop and draft a Naming Policy for facilities in the Medford Public Schools.
2. Discuss community participation for the new McGlynn Elementary playground to provide a recommendation to the School Committee.

Item 1: Guidelines Presented for:

- Dedication and Naming of School Buildings, Facilities and Grounds, Classrooms or space within a school building or on school grounds.
- Financial Contributions guidelines.
 - Agreement to be had between the School Committee and Donors.
- Naming and renaming of a building falls under the authority of the School Committee
The School Committee has sole authority over naming and renaming:
 - shall pass the resolution identifying the building, facility or school grounds to be named/renamed.
 - shall establish a Naming Advisory Committee pursuant to policy BDF Advisory Committee to the School Committee.
 - shall receive recommendation from the naming Advisory Committee at a Regular School Committee meeting.
- Community Giving Program.
- Informed Resolution to be on the Agenda for Regular School Committee Meeting.

Motion to Approve as Amended and Present it at the next Regular School Committee Meeting

Motion by Member Ruseau; seconded by Member Hays. Motion passes 3/0

Because this is a new Policy Read will have to go on the next Agenda for a Policy Read. It will need to be read again at the following meeting as policies require two readings - February 27, 2023 and March 6, 2023

Item 2: McGlynn Elementary playground - community participation program

- Design and equipment naming discussion

- Public vs. private property naming opportunities.
 - Installation space available for additional equipment, plantings and aesthetics.
 - Memorial areas.
 - Creative footprints - inclusive art experiences, i.e. mosaics.
- Make a recommendation to the School Committee to invite donors that recognize them.
 - Raise money through various means.
 - Dollar thresholds: develop levels of donorship - possible four levels to meet all levels of giving ability.
- Resolution to be drafted that lays out a giving threshold.

Motion to adjourn by Member Hays; seconded by Member Ruseau Motion passess 3/0
